At Luna, patrons can indulge in a fusion of South American and American Southern cuisine, where the menu is characterized by authenticity, freshness, and healthiness. One can opt for their hearty grain bowls, featuring rotisserie meats and locally sourced ingredients such as steamed kale and sweet corn. Meanwhile, the restaurant boasts a full bar of South American-inspired cocktails and house-made Agua Frescas. By honoring the diverse culinary traditions of South America while staying true to its Southern roots, Luna presents a unique and varied menu. Additionally, the restaurant is committed to improving local sustainability by actively promoting environmental, social, and economic wellbeing within the community.

Durham Vintage Collective boasts a wide range of home goods and clothing options for all sizes. The team behind the collective has established a significant presence in the Durham community, regularly appearing at local markets and events. Fans of the group's unique offerings were ecstatic when news broke that they would be opening their own brick-and-mortar store in the bustling downtown district. Peruse their eclectic collection, which includes nostalgic items, tasteful decor, and a carefully curated selection of apparel and accessories.
